

The Laboratory Safety Institute

How to Be a More Effective Chemical Hygiene Officer*

Introduction

The Chemical Hygiene Officer

OSHA/EPA Regulations in the Lab

Break

The OSHA Laboratory Standard

Chemical Hygiene Officer Responsibilities

Discussion Period

Lunch Break

Lab Hazards and Control Methods

Break

Chemical Hygiene Plan Development

Chemical Plan Implementation

Break

CHO Responsibilities Beyond The Laboratory Standard

Resources for Chemical Hygiene Officers

Break

Sample Test/Review

* This course was developed by Russ Phifer, George Wahl and Jim Kaufman (RJG Associates), the Workshop Committee of the American Chemical Society Division of Chemical Health and Safety. It is the prep course for taking the National Registry of Certified Chemists (NRCC) Certified Chemical Hygiene Officer exam.