

How to Comply with MA's New OSHA Regulations

- 0. Introduction _____ 8:30 - 8:40
- 1. The Chemical Hygiene Officer _____ 8:40 - 9:15
- 2. OSHA and related Regulations in the Lab _____ 9:15 - 10:00
- BREAK
- 3. The OSHA Laboratory Standard _____ 10:15-11:00
- 4. Chemical Hygiene Officer Responsibilities _____ 11:00-11:30
- Discussion Period _____ 11:30-11:45
- LUNCH BREAK (Dutch treat) _____ 11:45-12:45
- 5. Chemical Hazards and Control Methods _____ 12:45-1:30
- BREAK
- 6. Chemical Hygiene Plan Development _____ 1:40-2:20
- 7. Chemical Plan Implementation _____ 2:20-2:35
- BREAK
- 8. CHO Responsibilities
Beyond the Laboratory Standard _____ 2:45-3:15
- 9. Resources for Chemical Hygiene Officers _____ 3:15-3:30
- BREAK
- 10. Discussion and Q&A _____ 3:30 - 4:30

* This original version of this course was developed by Russ Phifer, George Wahl, and Jim Kaufman (RJG Associates), the Workshop Committee of the American Chemical Society Division of Chemical Health and Safety. It is the prep course for taking the National Registry of Certified Chemists (NRCC) Certified Chemical Hygiene Officer exam.